LIBRARY BOOKS from BRANDEN PRESS

THE TUPAMAROS: THE UNMENTIONABLES

By Major Carlos Wilson. Set against the background of Latin American political turmoil, the author dramatically recounts the development of the famed urban guerillas of Uruguay, the Tupamaros. Timely and significant, this book explains who they are, what they believe in, and why they have acted with violence. $7.50

HANNIBAL, MAN OF DESTINY

By M. Taleb. Here, for readers of all ages, is the fascinating story of Hannibal, one of the greatest military geniuses of all time, now retold in novel form. This lively, readable re-creation of history takes readers back into far-off ages to portray the ancestors of the Barcas and the stalwart men of Carthage, as they journeyed from Mesopotamia. $7.95

THE BUDAPEST BALLET

By Gyorgy Lorinc, editor, and Zsuzsa Kun, artistic advisor. A pictorial masterpiece, this album is devoted to the Ballet Company for the Hungarian State Opera House, following it through forty years of its history. More than 100 dynamic photographs, including an attractive cover, and an eloquent text, make this a treasured volume of the art of ballet. $15.00

HUNGARIAN COOKERY BOOK

By Karoly Gundel. Over 140 specialties of Hungarian cuisine are featured in this delightful book. Background text, detailed yet understandable; directions and color illustrations contribute to making this a "must" in any home where fine foods are appreciated. In these times of high prices, many of the recipes are money-savers, for they involve tasty dishes of fish, soups, and vegetables, and not of high-priced meats.
